

Creative Writing Assignment: Create your own god or goddess

Directions: In the pages following you will create your own god or goddess and then write three tales that feature your created god or goddess. You will work on this assignment for the first 15 minutes of class each day. This completed packet will count as a test grade, so you should do your very best.

Day 2:

Choose one physical strength, and explain how your god or goddess got it.

Choose one weakness, and explain how your god or goddess got it.

Where does your god or goddess live and what do they like to do?

Who are your god or goddess' family members? For example are their parents gods or goddesses, are they married to another god or goddess, or do they have brothers or sisters who are gods or goddesses?

Day 4:

Create some monsters that your god or goddess may face. Give the monster a name, and describe what the monster looks like and what it does, and/or why it is a monster. Give lots of detail!

Monster 1: Name: _____

Monster 2: Name: _____

Monster 3: Name: _____

