

RAISING RESILIENT TEENS IN CHALLENGING TIMES VIRTUAL PARENT PRESENTATION

Tuesday, March 1st, 2022 at 7:00 PM

The Society for the Prevention of Teen Suicide invites you to attend a virtual presentation to discuss some of the difficulties of parenting a teen in challenging times. Are you unsure how to bring up the topic of suicide, mental illness or substance use with your child? This presentation will help you to dispel common misconceptions, address the importance of talking to your child about identifying a "Trusted Adult", provide information on the warning signs of suicide and local resources, discuss the potential impact of current events, social media and more.

Enjoy an interactive panel of community experts:

- Susan Tellone (she/her/hers), RN, BSN, CSN, MSN, SPTS Clinical Director and Panel Moderator
- Damien Alan Lopez (he/him/his), Garden State Equality, Author, Project Manager & Trainer and Activist
- Amy Kennedy (she/her/hers), Education Director, The Kennedy Forum
- Caroline Davidson (she/her/hers), MPH, Vice President of State Engagement, ATLAS; Shatterproof
- Fatima Aw, SPTS Youth Council Member, Student, Suicide Prevention Advocate

The opportunity to ask questions from the comfort of your own home is an invaluable aspect of this virtual night!
