Course Overview

Welcome to the Design Lab! Here in the lab we will be working with the design process to create all kinds of fun. The goal here in Design Lab is to focus on the process of designing. Some of the ways that we design are with the 3D printers, creating with the Cricuts and many other materials. Our imaginations are our only limit!

Course Objectives

By the end of this class, you will be able to:

- Gain an understanding of how to use the design process to solve problems and design solutions.
- Utilize self reflection and constructive feedback from others to improve designs.
- Learn how to design in 3D with Tinkercad

Class Schedule

Monday	Synchronous Google Meets will take place at 2:15-2:35.
Tuesday	Synchronous Google Meets will take place at 2:15-2:35.

Course Information

Class Announcements	All information will be posted on Google Classroom
How can you get in touch with me?	Email Me! ;) When writing a message, please follow the expectations below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Include your name, the class name, subject of the message (e.g., Heather Smith--ELA10--Essay)</li><li>• Be specific about what you need in your email message.</li><li>• Make sure you type your question in the message and not in the subject box.</li></ul> Ask a question in the assignment in Google Classroom
Materials for Class	Students work on an independent project during portions of the class. Some supplies are available, however some may need to come from home. Students are encouraged to reuse items they already have from home. If a student will be bringing in purchased materials from home that is at the discretion of the guardian.
Online Discussions	Online discussions are an opportunity for you to interact with and learn from your peers. The class will regularly engage in conversations about the course content. You will receive credit for your participation in these academic discussions.  You are expected to post thoughtful, respectful, and well-written responses to the discussion questions and reply thoughtfully to at least two other students per discussion.
